

Arlene Baxter Named 2012 REALTOR® of the YEAR for the Berkeley Association of REALTORS®

During the gala Installation of officers and Directors of the Berkeley Association of REALTORS® on Saturday, December 8, 2012 Arlene Baxter of Red Oak Realty was named 2012 REALTOR® of the Year.

2012 BAR President Heidi Abramson stated “The REALTOR® of the Year Award is given to an individual in recognition of their significant contributions to our industry and to the Berkeley Association of REALTORS®. Arlene was selected for her integrity and knowledge of the Real Estate profession plus countless hours given in support of numerous BAR committees and projects. She has been an enthusiastic, tireless promoter of our association, creating innovative programs for our members. A Director of the BAR Board of Directors since 2004, Arlene has also worked diligently on practically every Association Committee and Task Force, as well as founding the Green Council, organizing the annual eCycling program and developing a memorable lecture series on Berkeley architecture.” Arlene served as BAR’s President in 2007 and served as the 2011 East Bay Chapter President of the Women’s Council of REALTORS®. She also served at the State level as a CAR Director, and was one of twelve members chosen to serve on a two-year CAR Green Task Force.

Abramson concluded: “Arlene has proudly served our Association, our community and the real estate industry with grace, passion and dedication. We proudly present our 2012 REALTOR® of the Year award to Arlene Baxter of Red Oak Realty.”
